TEAM LEAVES HOME IN FIRST POSITION

In yesterday's game "Doc" Ayres in eight innings pitched ninety times to the plate, while the three fingers who opposed him served the ball a total of 128 different times.

Jack Bentley, for the Griffmen, twirled the ninth round against the Tigers and shot the ball up to the batter's box. Griff's youngsters pitched four called balls and eight strikes, one of which was fouled.

Ayres, during the eight innings he worked, had but thirty-three called balls. Sixty of his pitches were good enough to be strikes, and sixteen of these were fouled. Of the forty-four that were either struck at or called, but six were hit safely.

Hall, in five innings, pitched seventy-five times, and thirty-five of these were called balls, five more than Ayres pitched in eight rounds. Hall gave three bases on balls, while Mann, Reynolds, and Ayres each issued one free ticket.

The combined efforts of the three Detroit hurlers resulted in the following tabulation: Balls, fifty-eight; strikes, seventy, twenty of which were fouled.

Detroit dropped another place in the race yesterday when the Nationals gave that team a coat of whitewash. Rain, which interfered with the Athletics-Browns game, halted a pitchers' battle between Shawkey and Weisman. Had the game been concluded and the Browns been returned the winner, the Tigers would have continued to occupy the second position.

It is now impossible for the Griffmen to lose the lead in the race for the flag before the team leaves for its jaunt around the circuit. This morning the Nationals are at the top of the standing with a lead of fifty points over their nearest rival, the Athletics. A win for both Nationals and Mackmen would send the team away with a forty-seven point margin. Should the Browns trim the Athletics tomorrow, while Washington is winning from Detroit, the Tigers would go home in second position.

Detroit, in third place this morning, can lose today's game and still better its position in the race before leaving for the West. On account of having played more games than the Athletics, a loss for the Tigers is not so costly as is the case when the Mackmen drop a game. In case Philadelphia loses to the Browns while the Griffmen are taking care of the Tigers, the teams at the conclusion of the series would stand: Griffmen, 60; Tigers, 56; Athletics, 57.

Today's game, which concludes the home stay of the fast flying Griffmen, will be called at 2:45 o'clock in order to allow the teams to catch the Federal express for Boston, which leaves at 3:30 p. m.

ATHENS, JES. CHALLENGE.

The Athens Juniors would like to arrange games with all teams in the District during four years. Address J. N. Doyle, 18 Tenth street northeast.

PROMOTERS BUZY.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 27.—Eight promoters are busy today to make the Ritchie and Charley White for a longer route following their ten-round no-decision contest here last night, on which the champion was decisively defeated.

FED PLAYERS ATTACK UMPIRE JOE MANASSAU

Police and Spectators Save Official from Serious Injury—Terrapins Win 4 to 3.

Baltimore, Md., May 27.—Knabe's Fed won from the St. Louis team here today in a six-inning game, 4 to 3. A riot was started by the Stouffers, Umpire Manassau being the point of attack. Police and spectators kept the rioter from being seriously injured. Outfielder Kommer, of the visitors, kicked Manassau in the side. Score:

St. Louis..... 2 0 0 1 0 0 0
Baltimore..... 3 0 1 0 0 0 0

Batteries—Wirt and Simon; Bump and Jachelt. Umpire—Morgan, Bush and Manassau.

MACKS AND BROWNS

PLAY 1 TO 1 TIE GAME

Athletics Have Two Men on Sacks in Sixth When Rain Halts the Battle.

Philadelphia, May 27.—A terrific storm of rain and dust broke up the Athletics-St. Louis game, which was in the sixth inning, with the score a one-run tie. The elements interfered in the Athletics' part of the sixth with Collins on second, Baker on third, and Wainwright out. Wainwright and Shawkey pitched effectively as far as the game went. Score:

Philadelphia..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Total..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0

*One out when game was called on account of rain.

Double play—Shawkey to Barry to Menck. Base on balls—Off Wainwright, 2; off Shawkey, 1. Struck strike—Agnew. Passed ball—Agnew. Umpire—Morgan, Connelly and Dixon. Time of game—1 hour and 15 minutes.

EASTERN CLUB TO PLAY AT CAMDEN

Potomac League Leaders Will Tackle New Jersey Semi-pro on Memorial Day.

The Eastern Club, of the Potomac league, will play at Camden, N. J., on Saturday to play the Camden Athletics Club and as the outfit from across the river has been going at top speed the past month they have a good chance of winning the State championship.

Manager C. J. Doyle, a sportsman of Savannah, Ga., and Mr. Doyle does not care to go East.

Fred Miller, who is training the stable of his brother Robert, sent Water Wells to New York for a couple of races at Belmont Park, which seemed to suit him and the son of Dick Wolf will remain there for a week. But he will return to Maryland early in June and bear the colors of his owner in the opening day feature.

J. H. Mead intended to ship Irish Gentleman away immediately after the finish at Pimlico, but changed his mind as soon as he saw the Marlboro book, which is especially liberal this season. Irish Gentleman, a good horse in any going, is an attraction at any race track, and, like Paton, he is at his best just now.

CHERRYDALE LOSSES.

Glencyn had an easy time trimming the Cherrydale M. P. team—score, 10 to 2.

Consistent hitting by the Glencyn players and the errors of the Cherrydale team put the game on ice in the early innings. Jarboe, Chew, and R. Donaldson featured with the stick. Score:

a base on balls and took second when Ayres dropped to Burns, coming home after high dropped foul line drive. The Tigers, after two runs, and in the seventh, put runners on second and third, but the young pitcher put on extra head of steam and whiffed Burns. Bentley was given a chance to show what he could do in the final chapter. He retired Bush and Kavanaugh, but High reached him for a single, stole second and third unopposed, and Crawford ended the game with a grounder, which Morgan gobbled up.

WHAT STARTED ON A TIE GAME WAS HALTED BY THE RAIN.

T. Glet in right field for the leaders, is the only man in his position who has thrown out a runner at first after hitting cleanly to the outfield. George has done this trick twice.

Royer has a fast bunch of players at Mount Pleasant, but he cannot boast of one first-class pitcher.

Whitney and Immanuel on Friday should be a hummer.

The crowds are strong for Umpire Woodward and his plan of rushing the game. One hour and a half is enough for nine innings, says the umpire.

FRANCIS QUIMET WINS IN FRENCH TOURNEY

American Champion Defeats Lord Charles Hope at Versailles.

TRAVERS ALSO TAKES MATCH

Paris, May 27.—In a hard-fought match, Francis Quimet, open golf champion of the United States, today defeated Lord Charles Hope, amateur champion of France, by one up in the quarter-final round of play in the French golf championship on the La Boule links at Versailles.

The weather conditions were unfavorable, as a raw, cold wind was blowing. Quimet played a steady game, his long, steady putting winning loud applause from the galleries.

Quimet, who came with Appery, of Australia, in the semi-final in the afternoon.

Jerome D. Travers in the quarter-final beat Fred Herreshoff, another American, easily, by 5 up and 4 to play.

Topping beat J. F. Lebon, of France, by 1 up. Travers and Topping were matched for the semi-final.

Two Americans qualified for the final tomorrow. They were Quimet and Topping, who won their matches in the semi-finals this afternoon.

Travers, who is a member of the Australian team, will play 3 to 2 to play. Travers' weak putting was his undoing.

MARYLAND AGGIES ARE STATE TITLEHOLDERS

Farmers Win from Washington College Team in Close Game 2 to 1.

College Park, Md., May 27.—The Maryland Agricultural College baseball team won a clear title to the State collegiate baseball championship here today, when they defeated the Washington College team from Chestertown, by the score of 2 to 1. But for stupid work on the bases, the local aggregation would have had a few more runs to their credit. As it was, the sudden arrival of a rainstorm prevented a tie score game. Score:

ENGLISH CREW COACH AGAIN TAKES CHARGE

Nickalls Out with Yale Oarsmen for First Time Since Last Saturday.

New Haven, May 27.—Guy Nickalls, the English crew coach, took charge of the varsity rowing squad this afternoon for the first time since the Yale-Cornell race at Hingham last Saturday. He branded the story that he had resigned as "an infamous lie," stated that he would take the Yale oarsmen to Gales Ferry next Friday, and believed that they would make an excellent showing against Harvard.

WELSH IN NEW YORK TODAY.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, May 27.—Freddie Welsh, English light-weight champion, is expected here tomorrow from New Orleans. He fights Johnny Dundee at Ulmer Park, New York, on Friday night.

GOLDENS AROUND GAMES.
